Special "Sneak Preview" Guide
Opening Spring 1989

Disney·MGM STUDIOS

Walt Disney World®

Step Into The World Of Movies & Television

Walk through the gates of the Disney-MGM Studios and you'll feel as though you've been transported back to a different time and place. It's Hollywood Boulevard in the 1930s. Art deco buildings surround you, unique shops sell one-of-a-kind Hollywood collectibles, the famous Chinese Theater looms in the distance and Hollywood "hawkers" sell maps to the stars' homes. Why, you may even be mistaken for a star yourself!

Since everyone loves the movies, the Disney-MGM Studios will give you an insider's look—at the movies and the behind-the-scenes action. And you'll have a lot of fun along the way.

All the amazing sights and sounds you'll read about, and more, will be here when the Disney-MGM Studios opens. So be sure to mark your calendar and visit in the spring of 1989. Now turn the page for a special "Sneak Preview" of all the excitement coming your way.

Bonnie Schiffman

*Good Morning Vietnam

Laurel Moore

*Ruthless People

*The Color of Money

Ron Phillips

*These titles are or will be available on home video.
†Check local listings for day and time.

Golden Girls†

Down & Out in Beverly Hills*

Three Men and a Baby*

The Disney·MGM Studios/Opening Spring 1989

Watch Tomorrow's Favorite Movies And TV Shows Being Made!

Golden Girls† House (on the backlot of the Disney- MGM Studios)

One of the most unique features of the Disney-MGM Studios—you can see real movies and television shows in the making. You'll be able to observe the stars, the directors, the stuntmen and the technicians as they create worlds beyond your wildest imagination.

Your insider's tour of film and television production takes you through a studio backlot that includes a New York City street and a residential street. You'll even see the house from "The Golden Girls." Next, you'll tour a soundstage complex and complete post-production facilities for a thrilling look at movie making. On a soundstage, what may look like a sunny beach scene today could be a cityscape tomorrow, thanks to the magic of sets, backdrops, props and other tricks of the film making trade.

The Disney-MGM Studios complete production facility is the place where fantasy is real and dreams come true, and it's here for you to see and experience!

†Check local listings for day and time.

New York Street (on the backlot of the Disney-M

Siskel & Ebert & The Movies†

Win, Lose or Draw†

M Studios)

Meet & Talk With Disney Animators!

Steamboat Willie

Just as the Blue Fairy gave life to Pinocchio, the Disney animators give life to their wildest imaginings. Now you can walk through an actual Animation Studio, meet the animators, watch them at work and talk with them. They may even share an animator's secret or two with you . . . if you promise not to tell anyone!

A visit to The Magic of Disney Animation offers a look at Disney animated features of the past, present and future. You'll get a firsthand look as Disney artists take you through the many stages of creating a Disney animated feature—from rough pencil tests to completed film. See computer animators, cel painters, in-betweeners, designers and all the people who create the fantastic and wondrous worlds of Disney's animated features.

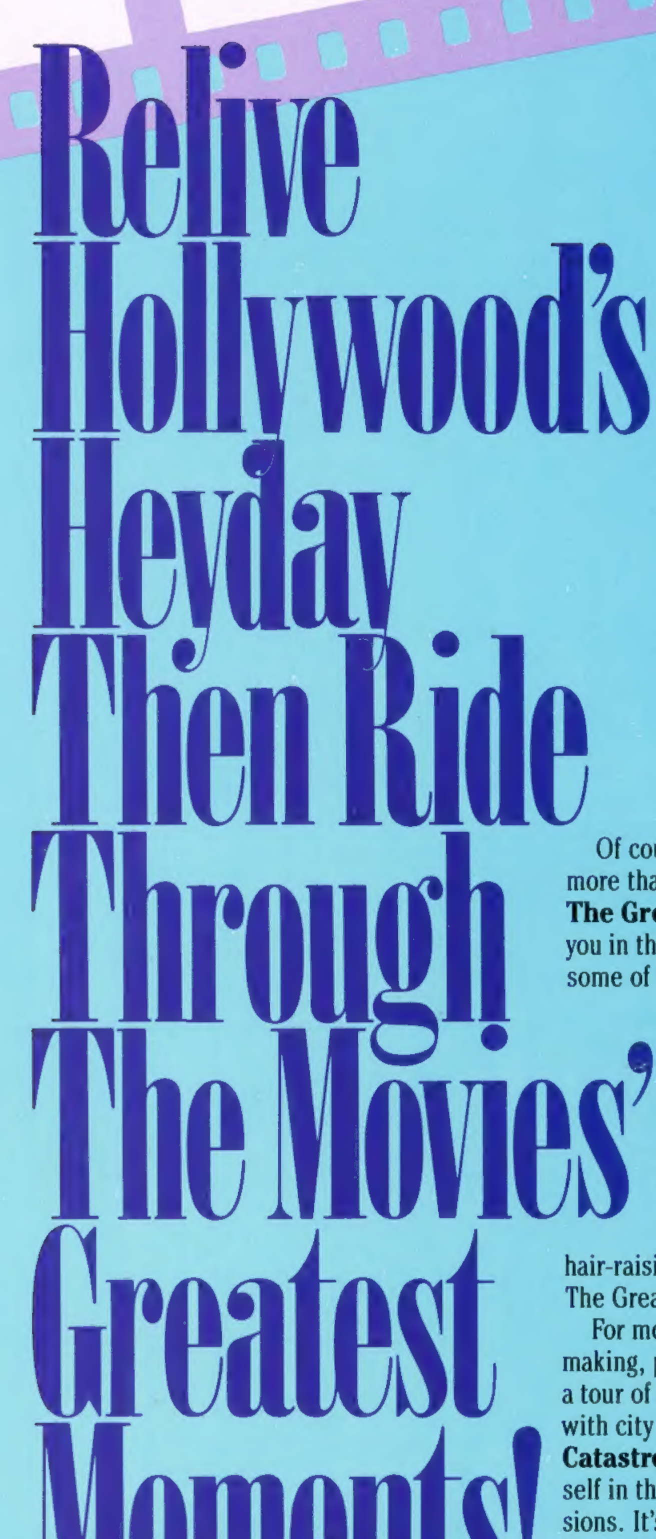

Pinocchio

Cinderella

Jungle Book

Oliver & Co.

Peter Pan

Relive Hollywood's Heyday Then Ride Through The Movies' Greatest Moments!

Past the gates of the Disney-MGM Studios is the hub of all the Hollywood hubbub! Autograph hounds, dinosaur-shaped ice cream stands, unique shops. All the famous trappings of 1930s Hollywood are here for you to see, touch and taste.

Of course, the Disney-MGM Studios has more than its share of exciting adventures. The Great Movie Ride, for instance, puts you in the middle of favorite moments from some of the most memorable films ever made, with more than a few surprises along the way! It's as exciting as a cops and robbers chase, as scary as an alien encounter and as timeless as Humphrey Bogart's farewell to Ingrid Bergman in "Casablanca." Toe-tapping musicals, nail-biting adventure epics, wild westerns, gun-toting gangsters and hair-raising monsters are all part of the fun of The Great Movie Ride.

For more adventures in the world of movie-making, prepare to go behind-the-scenes on a tour of a working studio backlot, complete with city scenes, suburban settings, even a Catastrophe Canyon, where you'll find yourself in the middle of floods, fires and explosions. It's part of the backstage magic at Disney! Who knows, you may even get to see the next big Disney hit-in-the-making!

Shortly after the opening, the Disney-MGM Studios will unveil the most exciting attraction this side of Alpha Centauri. Star Tours joins Star Wars adventure and Disney Imagineering for an experience that will have you making the jump to light speed and journeying through the galaxy.

The Disney-MGM Studios are filled with so many one-of-a-kind experiences, you'll want to see them again and again, just like your favorite film.

Catastrophe Canyon

The Great Movie Ride

The Great Movie Ride

*Star Tours

*Star Tours Opens Spring 1990.

Get An Insider's Look At The Great Special Effects And How They're Created

Jimmy MacDonald, Sorcerer of Sound

Mary Poppins*

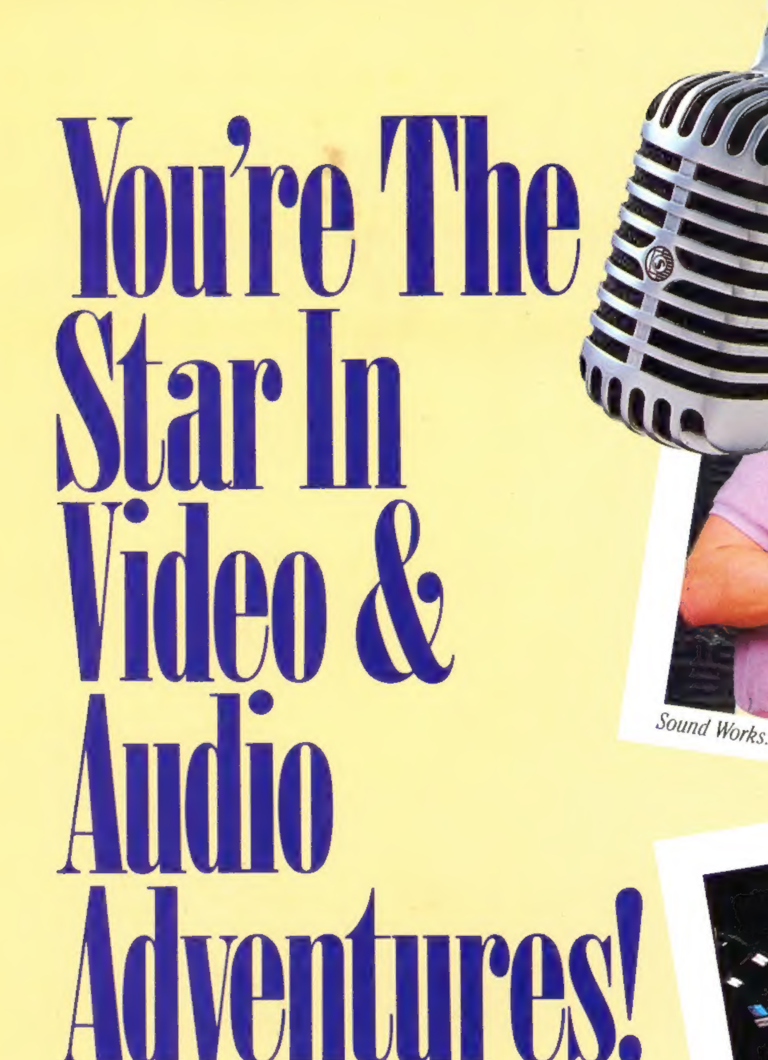

Giant cities of the future. Creatures beyond imagination. Storms at sea. Only through the magic of special effects can the fantastic and unbelievable be achieved.

Experience a storm only a studio wind machine could stir up. Watch as cloud tanks create billows of beautiful white clouds. Learn how filmmakers create everything from space battles and sea monsters to earthquakes and floods, without leaving the studio. All the techniques that bridge the gap between reality and make-believe are here for you to see in action, at the Disney-MGM Studios!

*Available on home video.
†Check local listings for day and time

Special Effects Tank

You're The Star In Video & Audio Adventures!

Sound Works.

† Win, Lose or Draw (taped live at the Disney-MGM Studios)

When the "ON AIR" signs light and the "APPLAUSE" lights flash, you can almost feel the excitement. That's live television, and at the Disney Television Theater, YOU get to be the star. Deliver the nightly news, trade quips on a sitcom or be a guest on your favorite talk show.

Volunteer and you'll be escorted to a backstage "Green Room" where you'll be given costumes, scripts and stage instructions. When the director starts the show, you'll find yourself living one of the great American fantasies—you'll be a real live T.V. star in one of the great shows from yesterday to today. Plus you may even get to be a studio audience member for real television shows being filmed at the Disney-MGM Studios.

Hear's listening to you, kid! The Sound Effects Studio is Hands-on AND Ears-on! A fascinating demonstration will prepare you to try your hand at creating sound effects. Did you know that walking on corn starch makes the same sound as walking on snow? Or that two coconut halves can sound like a horse's hooves? You'll make those and more sounds with a variety of unusual devices. Replace the voices of your favorite stars with your voice in famous scenes from favorite movies. Put sound effects in a Disney animated film. Experiment with a Theremin and create those creepy sounds from your favorite monster movies.

The results are surprising and a ton of fun in this involving, intriguing tour through the world of sound!

We feature GM cars like this Chevrolet Astro. ©1988 Cinderella Castle, Walt Disney World® Magic Kingdom

Take our mini to see Mickey.

If you're heading for Disneyland® or Walt Disney World® National's got a roomy new way for you to get around—the minivan. It's big enough for your entire family. And all their things.

To get one, just ask about the Minivan Family Plan. A special package of features including free baby seats. Free drop-offs anywhere in Southern California or Florida. And a special backpack with maps, children's supplies and vacation necessities.

To qualify, just make sure you have one child aged 55 or under. And a big appetite for fun. If you're planning to see Mickey, think big. And take our spacious new minivan. After all, no matter how close your family is, you don't want to end up in each other's lap.

For details and reservations, call 800-CAR-RENT or your travel consultant.

The official car rental company of Walt Disney World® & Disneyland®